Ambassador di Cellere in part said:

"This day has a threefold significance—it is Columbus Day; it is Italian Day; if is Liberty Day. That this day should have been designated by President Wilson as 'Liberty Day' is most fitting, for upon that first Columbus Day, four and a quarter centuries ago, the illustrious Genoese, in quest of truth, came upon this new country. From that day to this new country. From that day to this those in search of freedom and truth, oppressed by other nations, have come and founded here a new ideal of liberty in keeping with the broad stretches of this land."

Subscriptions to a total of more than $2,000,000 were gathered at a meeting of Italians yesterday afternoon in the armory of the Seventy-first Regiment. Thirty-fourth street and Madison avenue. Gov. Whitman praised the Italians for the aid they are giving the Liberty Loan drive and Ambassador di Cellere made a speech in Italian.

The veteran Bersaglieri, Alpini and Grenadiers were present. Justice John J. Freschi presided over the rally. The Metropolitan Opera chorus, the Seventy-first Regiment band and the Grenadiers furnished an elaborate musics gramme. Alfred E. Smith, Den candidate for Governor, was also pres ent, as was Gen. Gugielmotti of the Italian Military Mission.

25,000 March in Brooklyn. A great parade marked Brooklyn's

Liberty Day celebration. Twenty-five thousand patriots, including bankers, munitions and ship yard workers, Red Cross nurses, city and industrial ployees, were in line. The parade began at Bedford avenue and South Eighth street at 2 o'clock and ended at Brook-lyn's Honor Roll Tablet in Prospect Park. Throngs applauded the marchers. Industrial floats were a feature. Double=Quick For the Liberty Loan

To Mr. American Citizen:

Foch, Haig, Petain and Pershing are attending to the military business of winning the war. Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau are attending to the diplomatic business. Your business is to buy Liberty bonds. That duty is just as immediate and pressing as any duty that rests upon statesmen and soldiers, for they cannot do their work unless you

The Fourth Liberty Loan is double the amount of the Third Liberty Loan. For every dollar that you subscribed to the Third Loan you must subscribe two dollars to the Fourth Loan.

Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau, Foch, Haig, Petain and Pershing cannot win the war if you shirk your obligations. Buy bonds, and buy your full share! Don't sit back expecting other men to win the war for you and to hand you the fruits of victory on a platter. -N. Y. World.

Your Bit No Matter How Small Is A Large Bit

It is not money given away but money you save and loan at a good rate of interest with absolute certainty of return. It goes to make our Army, our Navy and our people powerful and victorious in a fight for freedom and right.
